BIO

Melissa Foley is the Executive Director of Resurrected Life, an esteemed apostolate dedicated to unleashing the transformative power of God's love through healing prayer. She ardently pursues her mission as an international speaker, retreat leader, and inner healing facilitator. With an unwavering commitment spanning over two decades, Melissa tirelessly accompanies women, men, and teens in the process of restoring their true identity in Christ and the Church.

Having been raised in the Evangelical Protestant tradition, Melissa experienced an instantaneous conversion when she entered a Catholic Church at a young age. She has undergone comprehensive training in six distinct methods of healing prayer and recently achieved a certification in Exorcism and Liberation Prayer from Regina Apostolorum in Rome, marking a significant milestone in her professional journey.

Melissa's influence extends to various media platforms, including appearances on EWTN television and radio alongside esteemed individuals such as Chrystalina Evert, Bear Woznick, Johnnette Benkovic, and The Family Room. She also serves as a regular host and speaker for the Women's and Healing Virtual Catholic Conferences.

Residing in Atlanta with her husband and three children, Melissa's active mission of leading individuals to a profound awareness and experience of being loved is fervently supported by her family.

MOST REQUESTED TALKS

DISCOVERING YOUR GOD-GIVEN PURPOSE: CONFRONTING LIES AND EMBRACING SIGNIFICANCE

Summary: In this inspiring talk, the speaker delves into the universal longing for significance and purpose. Drawing inspiration from John Mayer's song "Waiting on the World to Change," she highlights the desire many individuals have to make a difference in a troubled world. The speaker shares personal anecdotes, including her own conversion story, and emphasizes the importance of recognizing that we are made in the image of God. She challenges the audience to seek their worth and purpose in their identity as beloved children of a loving Father. The talk explores the idea that our purpose is not something external that we must strive to find, but rather an innate gift already present within us. The speaker encourages listeners to confront three common lies they may believe about their life's purpose and embrace the truth that their purpose is already within them, waiting to be discovered and lived out.

JOURNEY OF LOVE AND RECONNECTION WITH THE FATHER EXCELLENT FOR ADVENT!

Summary: In this talk, Melissa reflects on the Advent season and the significance of preparing to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ. She emphasizes the journey from God to God, highlighting the longing for a fulfilling life and happy endings that are inherent in human nature. The speaker shares personal experiences and stories, illustrating the power of prayer and the individual love stories that God reveals to each person. Melissa explains how sin creates a space between humanity and God, causing disconnection and a longing to return to the Father. She emphasizes that Jesus was sent to reconnect us with the Father, highlighting the importance of family and the ordinary lessons of love learned within it. Melissa stresses that God is always with us, guiding and supporting us through life's struggles, and invites listeners to experience the grace of Advent and return to the Father's embrace. The talk concludes with a prayer decreeing light into darkness and acknowledging God's love that waits for us to say yes to Him.

DISCOVERING YOUR WORTH IN THE ARMS OF THE FATHER GREAT FOR LENT!

Summary: In this talk titled “Discovering Your Worth in the Arms of the Father,” Melissa Foley, a prayer minister, explores the theme of Lent and the question of one’s worth in the eyes of God. Using personal stories of healing, she emphasizes the deep desire for connection and closeness with the Father, highlighting the pain and loneliness that arise from disconnection. Through stories of encountering Jesus and experiencing his love and forgiveness, she challenges the lies that God doesn’t know us, won’t be there when we need Him, and can’t forgive us. Melissa encourages listeners to invite Jesus into their lives and embrace the truth that God loves them unconditionally, waits for them, and offers forgiveness abundantly. The talk concludes by emphasizing the transformative power of God’s love and the assurance that He is always present, guiding and supporting us through life’s struggles.

ENGAGING THE BATTLE: SPIRITUAL WARFARE AND HEALING

Summary: In this enlightening talk, we delve into the profound realm of spiritual warfare and healing through the lens of Catholicism. Drawing from the rich spiritual heritage and teachings of the Catholic Church, we explore the reality of unseen forces at work in our lives and the world, and how engaging in spiritual warfare can lead to profound healing and growth. Through prayer, sacraments, and embracing our identity as beloved children of God, we discover the power and authority given to us to combat the forces of darkness and find restoration and wholeness in Christ. With a deep understanding of the spiritual battles we face and the transformative grace available to us, we embark on a journey of faith, equipped with practical tools and insights to engage in spiritual warfare and experience the healing and freedom that God desires for us.
